Security Council

SC · Room 507

TOPIC 1

Re-Evaluating the Threshold of Intervention: State Sovereignty, Humanitarian Aid Blockades, and the Ethics of Coercive Force

TOPIC 2

Navigating Catastrophic Regional Displacement: Sovereign Borders, Ethics of Forced Migration, and the Mandate for Global Resettlement

The Security Council carries primary responsibility for the maintenance of international peace and security. With fifteen members and the veto in play, delegates negotiate under real constraint: a single permanent member can halt an otherwise unanimous resolution. Expect a demanding pace, and resolutions judged on whether they could survive a real vote.

Full background paper coming soon.

The Secretariat will publish the complete guide — including the history of the question, bloc positions and questions a resolution must answer — before the conference. Delegates should begin their own research in the meantime.
